MAIV Limited

Introduction

This Cookie Policy outlines the various types of cookies and other technologies that may be utilized in connection with the website owned or controlled by Maiv Limited (trade name:

Rock-West). Additionally, it provides information on how you can manage cookies and other technologies.

We reserve the right to modify this Cookie Policy at any time. Any revisions to this Policy will take effect when we make the updated version available on or through the website.

Cookies

Cookies are small pieces of data stored on your computer by a website you visit. They enable you to perform certain functions on the website and customize its content to your preferences.

Cookies may store information on pages where you have provided key details, such as passwords, upon your explicit consent. While cookies may be used on some pages of the site to enhance the browsing experience, they are not utilized to identify individuals merely visiting the site.

Types of Cookies

- Performance Cookies:

These cookies allow us to track visits and traffic sources to measure and enhance the performance of our site. They provide aggregated, anonymous data on page popularity and visitor navigation. If you opt out of these cookies, we will be unable to monitor site performance.

- Strictly Necessary Cookies:

These cookies are essential for the website to function and cannot be disabled in our systems. They are typically activated in response to your actions, such as setting privacy preferences, logging in, or completing forms. While you can configure your browser to block or notify you about these cookies, certain parts of the site may not function properly without them. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.

- Functional Cookies

These cookies enable the website to offer enhanced functionality and personalized features. They may be set by us or third-party providers whose services we have incorporated into our pages. Disabling these cookies may result in certain services being unavailable or functioning improperly.

- Targeting Cookies

These cookies may be set by our advertising partners via our site. They enable these companies to create a profile of your interests and display relevant advertisements on other websites. While these cookies do not store personal information directly, they use browser and internet device identification to provide targeted advertising. Opting out of these cookies may lead to less personalized advertising experiences.

Cookies Usage

We use cookies to ensure the optimal functionality of our website and cater our content to your personal preferences.
